

Timely Tips From The Great Ones

By
Kevin A. Rafferty

Sources throughout history have offered valuable words of wisdom and insights that still ring true today. You may want to note some of these and use for your own affirmations.

“Two things seemed pretty apparent to me. One was that in order to be river pilot a man got to learn more than any one man ought to be allowed to know; and the other was that he must learn it all over again in a different way every 24 hours.” Mark Twain

“The future ain’t what it used to be.” Yogi Berra

“Each of us must be the change we want to see in the world.” Mahatma Gandhi

“Man is not limited to one chance...every day he is blessed with a new beginning!”
Anonymous

“If you want to truly understand something, try to change it.” Kurt Lewin

“A desk is a dangerous place from which to view the world.” John le Carre

“Don’t look back unless you PLAN on GOING that way!” Anonymous

“I am tempted to believe that what we call necessary institutions are no more than institutions to which we have become accustomed.” Alexis de Tocqueville

“No problem can be solved from the same consciousness that created it. We must learn to see the world anew.” Albert Einstein.

“The man who says ‘I can’ and the man who says ‘I can’t’ are both usually right!” Unknown

“An organization is a system with a logic all its own. The deck is stacked in favor of the tried and proven ways of doing things and against taking risks and striking out in new directions.”
John D. Rockefeller

“The world of the nineties and beyond will not belong to managers or those who make the numbers dance. The world will belong to passionate, driven leaders – people who not only have an enormous amount of energy, but who can energize those whom they lead.” Jack Welch

“The only real limitations we encounter are those which we place on our own mind!”
Anonymous

“All of history supports the observation that the desire to create is a fundamental urge in humankind. Fundamentally, we work to create, and only incidentally do we work to eat.” W. Harman

“By nailing a man’s whole attention to the floor of his mere consumer interests, it is hoped to render him incapable of appreciating the ever-increasing degree of his spiritual, political and moral degradation.” Vaclav Havel

“To live well is to work well, or display a good activity.” Thomas Aquinas

“They all attain perfection when they find joy in their work.” The Bhagavad-Gita

“A house divided against itself cannot stand...Our cause must be entrusted to, and conducted by its own undoubted friends – whose hands are free, whose hearts are in the work – who do care for the result.” Abraham Lincoln

“Give a man a fish and you feed him for a day; teach him how to fish and you feed him for a lifetime.” Unknown

“Your small part in this Great Play, if wrongly played, would affect its success...Find out your true part and play it for your own happiness.”...Paramahansa.Yogananda

© 2010 Kevin A. Rafferty